Municipal Borrowing

Legislature passed H.951, a bill that would provide for the state to pay interest costs that municipalities incur as a result of borrowing to cover obligations to pay education property taxes to either their school districts or the state, the latter being due on June 1. The borrowing must be attributable to the COVID-19 pandemic. The state treasurer is poised to enact the program as soon as the legislation is signed. The bill states that the treasurer “shall ... begin accepting applications not later than ten days after enactment...” (The bill passed on June 2.) “Short-term borrowing costs” means interest incurred for short-term borrowing directly attributable to the COVID-19 pandemic, including interest on letters or lines of credit, revenue anticipation notes, tax anticipation notes, and bond anticipation notes. These costs must have been incurred between March 1 and December 30, 2020. The bill includes up to $2,700,000 from the Coronavirus Relief Fund for use in FY20 and FY21 to provide payments under the Municipal Emergency Statewide Education Property Tax Borrowing Program. Local officials should watch for an announcement from State Treasurer Pearce regarding the availability of application forms to request funding.

Local Support and Community Action Team- Interim Report to the Governor

The Local Support and Community Action Team of the Governor’s Economic Mitigation and Recovery Task Force has released their Interim Report. This Team, led by VCRD, serves to “gather information about local initiatives, validate and vet those efforts, and provide strategies to maximize our response for the benefit of all Vermonters.” The report includes preliminary recommendations for social and economic recovery in housing, childcare, local food access, business support and recovery, and broadband. The report also includes a list of next stage action steps. Read the report here.

Additionally, VCRD developed a webpage shares best practices and other news in the Vermont community recovery. ACCD also offers the Resources for Communities page featuring municipal and community support services.
