MEMO

Date: April 9, 2021
To: Bylaw Work Group
From: Bonnie Waninger, Executive Director
Re: Recommendation for Revised Committee Purpose Statements

This memo offers recommended revisions to the purpose statements of existing committees for the Work Group's consideration. As part of the Bylaw update, staff recommended the Commission consider listing the purpose and duties of Board-designated committees as separate items. The Bylaw Work Group requested staff compile the purpose statements to assist with reviewing this recommendation.

Staff worked to bring the purpose statements into alignment by standardizing formatting, removing duties when they were included with the purpose, and massaging current wording into a clearer depiction of purpose. Once a committee's purpose is established, it is easier to review a committee's current duties and determine whether adjustments are needed to align the duties with the committee's purpose.

Purpose Versus Duties

- The purpose of a committee describes how it contributes to the efficient operation of an organization. Why is the committee needed?
- The duties of a committee describe the actions a committee is authorized and expected to take to accomplish its purpose. What are the specific activities to be carried out?
